

Characterization of Sinhala Sounds in Electronic Speech Recognition

W. M. N. S. Wanasundara, M. K. Jayananda and Asiri Nanayakkara

Department of physics, University of Sri Jayawadenepura, Gangodawila, Nugegoda

There has been tremendous progress made on speech recognition of English and other European languages during last twenty years. However, comparatively very little progress has been made on speech recognition system; we are engaged in analyzing Sinhala speech using various methods. In the present paper, we report preliminary results on characterization of some Sinhala characters using Fourier spectra.